Craig Cameron

Cole Cameron

Craig Cameron has had a lifetime of education, learning from the greatest, most important teacher of them all - the horse. From working on the family ranch as a child to riding bulls in the PRCA, to becoming a world-renowned horseman and horse trainer. Native Texan, Craig Cameron lives the cowboy life every day.

Craig has been recognized with many honors, including the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame, Hero's Hall of Fame and two Silver Telly Awards. Craig was also the Road to the Horse 2010 World Champion. Craig is the creator and founder of the popular Extreme Cowboy Racing and the Guts and Glory 100 Mile Ride for Special Ops.

Cole has worked with some of the top horse trainers over the years and has competed in multiple disciplines including, cutting, team roping, and reined cow horse. In 2020, Cole was the EXCA Futurity World Champion. In 2021 he won the prestigious Wild Card competition at the Road to the Horse colt starting event in Fort Worth, Texas, as well as four EXCA world titles (Futurity Champion, Pro Champion, and Overall World Champion). In 2023, Cole was reserve Road To The horse World Champion. He enjoys working with people and carrying on the family legacy of being a steward of the equestrian industry.
